How about that 6 o'clock closing? In many towns it goes into effect on May 1st, and some of Newberry's clerks begiu to look as if an hour or two breathing spell each day would do them good. Some one take around the petition and put the ball into motion.

Mr. Jno. B. Bedenbaugh announces himself in this paper as a candidate for County Supervisor. Mr. Bedenbaugh is a popular young man and will make the race a lively one. By the way, this will be a dcuble campaign with "John Back," and in one the ladies will be allowed to vote-that is some will be given an opportunity. Watch him electioneer the giris!

Prof. Patty, the Liquid Air man, had the misfortune to lose a gallon of his Liquid Air at the depot on Saturday. His case, which contained the jar, was accidentally struck by a barrel of fish and the jar broken. Some of our local prophets had the audacity to say that the escape of that gallon of liquid air is what caused the "cool snap." The Prof. claimed that it would cost him $75, and from some of his remarks one would infer that he was anything but "cool."
